Sacred Heart College, Kochi, is a premier institution of higher education affiliated to the Mahatma Gandhi University, Kerala, India. Established in 1944 by the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate (C.M.I), a catholic religious order for men, the college aims at the fashioning of an enlightened society founded on a relentless pursuit of excellence and a secular outlook combined with a firm faith in God.

Over the years, the SH College has established itself a frontrunner in the quest for excellence, both in the academic and co-curricular fields. In the year 2000, the college was accredited by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) at the 'A' Level. In 2014 the college became one among the first five autonomous colleges in Kerala. With its 21 undergraduate, 18 postgraduate programmes and 7 PhD programmes, and a range of diploma and certificate courses, the college has been in a quest to stay abreast of the ever expanding academic frontiers.

Travel-O-Scope was an idea that dawned in the creative minds of heartians five years ago, since then it gave rise to an explosion of art and culture within the college and also conducted social outreach programme across the city. From years on, the college aims at widening it's horizons by taking it into various
