Green Earth is for the betterment of everyone on this planet. Now-a-days, we hear a lot of new diseases popping up. The main cause of these diseases are pollution. When we have eco-friendly life cycle, the advantages that come into play is plenty. Lots of lives can be saved, which also include safety of other living organisms existing in this planet. Pollution is the important factor that has made people to worry about the planet. So, Boomithra sena volunteers wholeheartedly promote and propagate this idea to community through various activities.
