COURSE PLAN

Programme	B.A. ENGLISH (MODEL II - COPY EDITOR)	Semester	5
COURSE TITLE	Postcolonial and Subaltern Literatures	Credit	4
Hours/Week	4	Hours	90

Course Objectives
Understand the social-historical-political economic contexts of colonialism and postcolonialism in India and other countries affected by colonial rule.
Understand the scope of postcolonial literatures in India and elsewhere, primarily as a response to the long shadow of colonialism, not just of colonial occupation
See through a corpus of representative postcolonial texts from different colonial locations: the effects of colonial rule on the language, culture, economy and habitat of specific groups of people affected by it.
Appreciate and analyze the growing spectres of inequality arising out of colonial occupation and the role played by postcolonial literatures to resist it in India and similar locations
Critically engage with issues of racism and imperialism during and after colonial occupation
Critically engage with the complex nature of Postcolonial writing around the world and critically appreciate the diversity of Postcolonial literatures in the light of a rational and logical temperament.
