Event Report

The Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB) is a statutory body under the Department of Science and Technology (DST), Government of India (GoI), established through an Act of Parliament. Its primary mandate is supporting high-quality basic and applied research in frontier areas of science and engineering. It carries forward the legacy of the erstwhile Science and Engineering Research Council (SERC) of DST, which promoted and handled extramural research funding for four decades. The individual-centric excellence-based programmes of SERC were brought forward to SERB along with the robust merit review process. Since the inception of SERB, several new programmes have been introduced depending on the needs of the research community and global trends.
