 Conclusion

Fr. Abraham Kallarackal, retired from the Department of Sociology in the year 2006, after 18 years of meritorious service. Besides his priestly assignments, he was well known in the academic sphere as a social scientist, and among the surrounding community as a person committed to the welfare of the needy and the indigent. The faculty and students of Sacred Heart College, Thevara gratefully acknowledge his service to the community. In pursuance of this aim, we have been organizing National/ international level academic programme every year on a theme of contemporary relevance.

A Seminar is being organized this year on November 24, Tuesday. The seminar will deliberate on contemporary gender issues in the light of emerging fascism in manifold facets of social life.

Dr. Sheeba K.M, Associate Professor, Dept. of History, Sankrith University, Kalady will deliver the main talk on the theme.
