Event Report

NSS orientation camp was held on 09/07/2016. Students were involved in a variety of activities for improving personality, teamwork and environmental awareness. Orientation class for the new volunteers was conducted at the college auditorium. Associate prof. SIBI K.I, from the department of sociology, who is also the former programme officer of N.S.S, led the session. Around 100 volunteers were divided into ten groups and given different tasks to improve their group building and leadership qualities.
