Foreword

English in Practice 2 is an ELT course book for the undergraduate students of Saurashtra University, Gujarat.

The book is divided into four modules: Reading, Vocabulary, Grammar and Comprehension/Composition. The book aims to equip learners with the required language and communication skills for academic purposes and successful professional careers. The book introduces students to a variety of texts with the common theme of 'commerce' running across the chapters. Adopting a holistic approach towards the learning and teaching of English, the book combines literary explorations with grammar, vocabulary and composition tasks, and thereby helps students achieve a high degree of proficiency in English.

We hope teachers and students will benefit from this course and the book will be widely appreciated, just like its predecessor.
