

Exhibition on Cinema: Stephanian Expo (02/01/2016)

Stephanian Expo was hosted by SH School of Communication on 2nd January 2016. Various programmes related to knowledge, technology, science, arts etc were arranged as part of the workshop. The expo opened a door to the world of cinema, as talks and discussions on cinema were held. Students were also allowed to visit the Media Lab where an exhibition of different types of rare cameras and lenses was arranged. A short film festival was also conducted as part of the event. Zebra Lines, a short Film directed by Rajesh James, faculty of English was screened. The film gathered a lot of critical responses from the students. The expo instilled an interest in students to explore the diverse avenues offered by the cinema and television industry. Students from the nearby schools also made use of this opportunity.
